Pastor Rachel informed the board that Jesse Steed has put in a request for a new laptop for the church. This will enable him to develop the new church website with greater capacity for video usage and other upgrades. There are funds available in the undesignated memorials account. (continued on next page)

Facilities: Report::

Pastor Rachel reported that the south driveway pavement work was completed for $3,000 less than originally contracted. This was due to a change in contracted pavers. The parking lots need major upgrading, which will be a significant cost.

Everyone is Welcome, Inclusive

Kind, Transparent, Just

Lead by Example / Role Models

Teachers of the Word

Stewards of People and the Earth

Who is God Calling Us Towards:

Young Families

Youth

Core Focus:

To Grow our congregation and ministries to serve our families and youth

A motion was made by Tim Goodwin and seconded by Bruce Benson to take on the following goals:

1. Establish a childcare facility that meets the unmet needs of families with children.
2. Recruit 5 Families to host youth of the Wallflower program that need a place to stay.
3. Establish ongoing projects for the SALT group to support the KEY.

The motion was unanimously approved.

Further expansion on these goals are the following:

1. Explore use of current 'nursery school' site, perhaps to include so-called '3rd shift' day care. Could outsource the space or investigate hiring a part-time 'day care director'.
2. Recruit and facilitate training for members entering the Wallflower program.
3. Adopt The Key as an outreach of the church. Much like monthly 'works of mercy' solicit funds to support the youth using The Key.

Review meeting dates: The annual Charge Conference will tentatively be held on November 20, 2022

Next Meeting

October 26, 2022, 5:30 pm.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:15 PM

Message from the Pastor

In 2019, NUMC engaged in the Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI) process - this process spawned several new teams around family ministry, guest welcome, communications, and worship. Through that process, an immense amount has changed: we now have a beautiful welcome area at the south entrance, our internal church signage is significantly improved; a new website build is underway; we hired a new youth director and children's ministry coordinator to staff out family ministries as re-designed by the Families First team, we moved to one worship service, and our guest welcome team has engaged over 50% (!) of the in-house worshipping congregation in the work of welcoming everyone who come to us on Sunday mornings as though they were Christ himself.

Because this work - as well as all of life! - was interrupted by the pandemic, it's easy to lose sight of all that has been done and all that has changed. The list above doesn't even include the work of becoming an intentional welcoming church, or "reconciling congregation," for our LGBTQIA+ siblings, our soul-searching, learning, and acting led by our Dismantling Racism Team, and the herculean effort it has taken to offer hybrid in-person and online worship every Sunday so everyone can participate in worship, whether near or far away. These changes, alongside our continued offering of community meals on Super Wednesdays, the work of the United Women of Faith, Operation Backpack, and SALT (Serving and Learning Together, our team comprised of confirmed youth leading the whole church in service projects), have grounded our church through this historic time to stay true to its mission: "We are called, nurtured, and sent out for this purpose: to glorify God by acts of worship, compassion, devotion, and justice."

One remaining piece of the MCCI process that had really just gotten started when the pandemic closed everything was the work of the Signature Ministry Research Team. This team was tasked with an enormous job: to research our community's needs and our church's resources and gifts to see where NUMC could really "move the needle" in some significant way in Northfield. Another way of stating this team's purpose would be this: determining what NUMC is uniquely called and gifted to by God in Northfield. As part of this work, the team prepared two reports on possibilities we could explore: the first was around affordable housing needs, and the second was around meeting the needs of underserved families and children in our community (both reports are available upon request to the church office at info@northfieldumc.org.) As part of this, we looked at our abundant resources - and we have many - and the 2021 Administrative Council voted to have a season of discernment specifically around the acres around our facility: is the land itself what God is calling us to put towards this "signature ministry" effort?

This led to our process during the fall of 2021 of offering several months of prayer walks through the lots on the south side of our NUMC property, praying that God would speak to us about how we are called to use the significant resources of this church for God's will. These walks culminated in an all-church gathering at the end of January of this year, where we listened to each other's hopes, dreams, anxieties, and fears about the possibilities of using church land for some new ministry.

The call at that all-church meeting was for anyone who wanted to be part of the next stage of discernment to join a team to sift through the responses at the January meeting to see if they could see a direction that had the most energy and support behind it. After a few months and additional meetings and conversations, this "Next Steps" team concluded that whatever it is God is calling us to do next, the concerns about using the land were too significant to be an immediate path forward for any new ministry. Too many question marks over this particular resource made it clear that it would not be anything we could move on immediately, and whatever God is calling us to, it isn't to wait to do God's work.

At this writing, the NUMC Board is taking up the work of the Signature Ministry Research team and the "Next Steps" team, both of whom provided some tantalizing other directions that we might be called to go. The work of the MCCI process is incomplete and unfulfilled until and unless we are able to answer this critical question.

Pray for the lay leadership of your church as they do this critical work - their names are included in the Board Minutes in this Herald, as well as notes on the directions the Board has discerned we should explore next. Please read and reflect on their work! They are gaining clarity in what we have that we can uniquely offer to our community, and this will engage the whole of the congregation.

The church is the church when it does the will of God - full stop. This demands prayerful engagement from all of us. The Covenant Prayer in the Wesleyan Tradition can be yours to offer during this season:

"I am no longer my own, but thine.
Put me to what thou wilt, rank me with whom thou wilt.
Put me to doing, put me to suffering.
Let me be employed by thee or laid aside for thee,
exalted for thee or brought low for thee.
Let me be full, let me be empty.
Let me have all things, let me have nothing.
I freely and heartily yield all things
to thy pleasure and disposal.
And now, O glorious and blessed God,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
thou art mine, and I am thine. So be it.
And the covenant which I have made on earth,
let it be ratified in heaven. Amen."

Blessings,
Rachel

Dismantling Racism Team (DRT) Walk Together: On the Journey to Racial Justice

The phrase, "We're all in this together" may sometimes sound trite and overused, but it's true nonetheless, especially for followers of Christ. God calls us to be in relationship with each other, no matter how difficult or complicated that may be. When we come together in humility, vulnerability, and willingness to ask the tough questions, transformation is possible.

During the month of October, the Dismantling Racism Team (DRT) will host a discussion series we're calling "Walk Together: On the Journey to Racial Justice." Meeting after worship on 10/9, 10/16, and 10/23, we will use videos and conversation to tackle such topics as overt and covert racism, white privilege, allyship, and how we, as predominately white Christians, can move toward efficacy, justice, and courageous positive action within our spheres of influence.

Please join us! And bring your questions, suggestions, complaints, hopes, and fears about this journey with you—all travelers and their baggage are welcome!

Notes from the Parish Nurse

Pacer, which is a center that offers information and training to families of children and youth with disabilities, founded National Bullying Prevention Month in 2006. It is “a month long event to prevent childhood bullying and promote kindness, acceptance, and inclusion.” (www.pacer.org) Pacer also works with the National PTA, American Federation of Teachers, and the National Education Association to supply educational resources and support in response to bullying behavior. It is hoped that bullying can be prevented through education and awareness.

“Historically, bullying had been viewed as a childhood rite of passage that ‘makes kids tougher,’ but the reality has always been that bullying can leave devastating and often long-term effects such as a loss of self-esteem, increased anxiety, and depression for those involved.” That viewpoint has changed considerably over the years.

“Bullying is unwanted, aggressive behavior among school-aged children that involves a real or perceived power imbalance. The behavior is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated over time.” (<https://youth.gov>) Bullying includes making threats, spreading rumors, attacking someone physically or verbally, or excluding someone from a group on purpose. Cyberbullying includes sending mean text messages or emails, posting rumors or embarrassing pictures or videos on social media, or making fake profiles.

National Bullying Prevention Month encourages school culture and individual classrooms to support respectful school environments by fostering inclusion and respect. “The large body of research on effective responses to name-calling and bullying concurs that schools and other educational institutions can best address these behaviors through ongoing, comprehensive plans. These can include both intervention and prevention strategies and engage all people in the school environment.” (www.adl.org) Students can practice empathy, reach out to new classmates, and report bullying so others don’t suffer in silence. Teachers can give positive reinforcement by rewarding students who show respect and thoughtfulness. And administrators can plan bullying prevention programs. (<https://nationaltoday.com>) Parents and the community should also be involved.

“By being aware of not only the types of bullying but also the types of bullies your child may encounter, you will be better equipped to help your child in any situation.” (www.verywellfamily.com) Bullying is not just physical, name calling, excluding individuals, gossiping, or making fun of a person’s race or religion. There are actually six types of bullying. The most obvious one and historically most noticed in schools is physical bullying. Others include prejudicial, sexual, verbal, and cyber bullying, and relational aggression. (These are all well-defined at www.verywellfamily.com)

Priorities of parents should be to help a child overcome bullying and to find ways to prevent future bullying incidents. It is important that students know that they have options to deal with bullies. “Feeling like there are no options or that the bully must be tolerated, lead to feelings of hopelessness and depression.” (www.verywellfamily.com) The above mentioned website is very thorough and covers many other important topics related to bullying. Two of them are “Ten Steps to Help a Child Overcome Bullying” and “Seven Ways to Avoid Bullies at School.”

“Childhood bullying and school violence can have lifelong consequences for elementary students. If your child is being bullied, take the situation seriously. Help your child create a plan to stop bullying in its tracks.” (www.mayoclinic.org) The first line of defense against bullying is to be prepared. Hopefully books, articles, websites, physicians, teachers, guidance counselors, and friends can help you be prepared.

Part of the ministry of Methodists Invested in Care and Action in the Holy Land is sponsorship of a family living in occupied Bethlehem. To better learn what justice for people like our Bethlehem family can mean, team members look to stories about the occupation of the West Bank. In this book review team member Bruce Benson connects the influential Jewish American Harvey Pekar's changing perspectives on events in the Holy Land with his own shifting understanding of the actions of the state of Israel.

Not the Israel My Parents Promised Me by Harvey Pekar illustrated by JT Walkman

Book recommendation by Bruce Benson

When I read “Not the Israel My Parents Promised Me” in 2012 the scales finally fell from my eyes regarding the Israeli Palestinian conflict. I saw the movie “Exodus” when I was 10, I watched the 1967 Six Day War with Huntley and Brinkley, and I read the Star/Tribune and the Pioneer Press coverage and thought they were fair minded. When I was in college I became radicalized, but even then I was in Israel's corner. Israel loved Nixon and Reagan, I ignored this. It was something I just accepted until 2012.

Harvey Pekar was a Jazz Critic and Underground Comic Writer. He is important in the development of the Graphic Novel. His long running American Splendor was a graphic memoir of his daily life in Cleveland. It covered 27 years. He worked with many artists. I read him and especially liked his graphic history's of the SDS and The Beats.

Harvey's parents were Zionist's and Harvey even made a half hearted attempt to move to Israel when he was young. All this and Cleveland too are in “Not the Israel My Parents Promised Me”. It is a graphic history, a graphic memoir, and a fair minded book. It was published two years after Harvey's death.

Harvey Pekar was a good writer, a good historian, and someone I trusted. I think “Not the Israel my Parents Promised Me” is his finest book. There is a copy available in the Church Library. Give it a read. I think it may be the only Harvey Pekar book in any Church Library.

COME TO BROWSE, COME TO BID AND COME TO COMPLETE YOUR HOLIDAY SHOPPING!

Thank You to all the purchasers of the 75 pies made and sold, and donations made during the successful UWFaith Apple Pie Fundraiser. The money raised will go to cover our pledge to Emma Norton Services and to United Women in Faith missions: district, state, and national.

A generous donation of apples came from Trump Orchards in Faribault, MN. Fireside Orchards donated a crate of "first blush" apples. And the small orchard on Hwy 3, Castle Rock Kennels and Orchard, donated a bag of zester apples. Three other UWFaith members brought apples too. Every apple went into the pies!!!

Cub Foods and Family Fare donated the ingredients for the pies and some of the pie shells. Two UWFaith members added pie shells too. Without these donors, our pies would be quite expensive. Thank you.

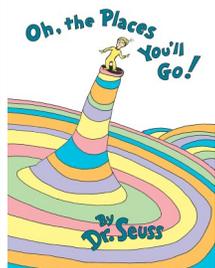

On September 13th, fifteen pie makers gathered to put 75 pies together. Linda Betzold, Peg Jennings, Martha Waddell, Linda Davis, Catherine Williams, Candy Merkle, Merrell Thornton, Ilse Jones, Lynn Gryc, Ruth Sommers, Thalia Duffield, Cindy Anderson, Dorothy Orde, Connie Hehling, and Bev Brumbaugh (the man who dared to join us) – our special thanks go to all of you gathering to make those pies happen. Like in any successful endeavor, there were many others that added their part. Thank you.

Several weeks of school are out of the way, however, church activities for young people have barely begun as the calendar page flips to October. This explains the continuing display of books for children, youth, and young adults in both Fellowship Hall and the Church Library.

Young people, parents and leaders of youth activities are encouraged to take a look at the resources and the items noted on the bulletin boards.

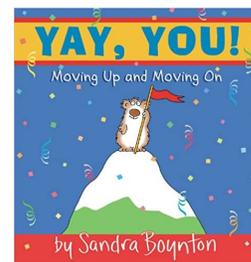

Resources supplementing adult studies will be added in a few weeks.

Meanwhile, for all ages, there are the additional "possibilities" to be found on the Library's shelves.

For now, we echo the encouraging words of authors Sandra Boynton and Dr. Seuss, declaring, Yay, You! and exclaiming, Oh, the Places You'll Go!

Your Church Library team,
Linda Davis, Diane Genova, Ruthi Henrichs, and Corinne Simonson

We have many projects; from quilts, book bags, diapers, layette gowns, layette jackets and receiving blankets. Some of the quilts are given out at church baptisms. Some go to the Masonic Cancer or Children's Hospital. Some are donated to Operation Joy. Some go to refugee resettlement. Mission Sewing meets on October 26th, Wednesday to tie quilts. We meet at 9AM in Room 120.

Church Fall Work Day

Saturday, October 8th, 8:00 am - noon

We will clean, weed and landscape outside and clean and sanitize inside. Bring your gloves, rakes and whatever else you think you may need and join the fun! There will be jobs for all skill levels. Questions? info@northfieldumc.org

Meals On Wheels

Our church will be delivering Meals On Wheels for the week of November 7-12. We are seeking volunteers to be drivers to deliver the meals made by the hospital. It is a great service to get meals to those who need a good healthy meal. It only takes about an hour over the noon hour. You can volunteer one day or every day or as many as you want. Please reach Marie Beck at Marieyvonbeck@gmail.com or call 608-322-3596 with days of the week you would be available to help.

Thank you

Dear Mission Sewers,
Words cannot express our gratitude and admiration for the hours of love, creativity and reflection you gave to making the "Women of the Bible" quilt and 3 other quilts. What an absolutely inspiring idea! It is truly a work of art and we are so eager to give it to one of our refugee families in need. As you know, families with refugee status arrive every day with just a suitcase per person and hearts full of hope. Your donation helps welcome those fleeing persecution around the globe into new lives of freedom, hope, and opportunity here in Minnesota. With gratitude for your partnership in the ministry of welcoming refugees,
Kathryn Berger
Refugee Services, Minnesota Council of Churches
