Approval of the meeting's Agenda – Dave Wolf moved to approve the agenda. Tim Goodwin seconded. Agenda Approved.

Agenda items

Fiduciary Items:

SPRC (Closed Session – updates from Allie and Rachel) Motion made by Tim and seconded by Sara to move to a closed session. The board then resumed an open session after a motion from Sara, and seconded by Allie. All motions approved.

Finance (John Stull and Tim Goodwin)

Tim reported that the final year end numbers were not complete, as of meeting time. He recommended that the budget process be done at the next meeting, after the final 2022 numbers are complete. John reported that the year end checking account balance was $76,716.00, after increased giving in December.

It is projected that final ledger balances will indicate a year end deficit of around $30,000. Tim led a discussion for moving some undesignated funds to the general fund. This is just an internal movement of spent funds from one line item to another. Tim made a motion to move $6,439.54 from undesignated gifts and $10,000 from undesignated memorials to the general fund. Sara Newberg seconded. - Approved

Facilities - Pastor Rachel informed the board that the City of Northfield is constructing a sidewalk and bike path on Maple Street this summer. After some discussion on the repercussions of this change to church property, John Stull made a motion that the board support the construction, as the church continues to embrace such community efforts. Bruce Dalgaard seconded the motion. - Approved

Bylaws Update – After consulting with other church leaderships, Pastor Rachel was pleased to inform the board that with the change to a single leadership board, no immediate changes need to be made to the by-laws.

Ministry Items:

Daycare – Congregational Engagement proposal - Kevin and Rachel shared an email from Warren Winkelman, concerning a conversation he had with Erin Bailey, Northfield Community Education Director. Erin outlined many issues affecting the growing lack of affordable daycare in Northfield. Staffing is the biggest concern, as the cost of good staff can make a daycare unaffordable for low income families. Paper work for county assistance can become more difficult than some daycare providers wish to deal with.

Erin has happily agreed to conduct an Adult Forum on February 26th, to provide further information on this issue, and answer any questions the congregation may have.

We will continue to learn more about the community's affordable childcare needs and what role our church can take on this issue.

Key Update – Pastor Rachel informed the board that the UWF has adopted The Key as well, as part of their missions work.

Family event – Pastor Rachel suggested that this item be tabled until this spring/summer.

Wednesdays – Community Schools impact – Kevin also talked to Erin Bailey about the Community School programs that are now happening at the elementary schools, as an after school activity. Some of these activities occur on Wednesdays. He believes these programs might affect our own programming/meals on Wednesday nights. This is a question to consider in the future. Kevin agreed to send the board an email with a short power point about the Community School programs.

Next Meeting

March 1, 2023, 5:30 pm.

A motion was made by Kevin Dahle to adjourn and seconded by Sara Newberg.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:35 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Carolyn Seas

Message from the Pastor

February is Black History Month. As Methodists, we have an astonishing array of Black saints to lift up without even leaving the sanctuary of our own tradition: Harriet Tubman! John Lewis! Ellen Sirleaf Johnson! Rosa Parks! Joseph Lowery! We can and should be humbled by the names we can claim as "ours," singing the same hymns, sharing the same baptism, and proclaiming the same prevalent, justifying, and sanctifying grace at work in the world.

Before we become too self-congratulatory, though, each of these names is connected to stories that paint a broader, less joyful picture.

Harriet Tubman freed hundreds of slaves. . .some of whom were enslaved by plantation owners who also worshipped at Methodist churches.

John Lewis was a hero of the Civil Rights Movement to end segregationist policies. . .policies which some white Methodists were all too happy to fight for to keep in place.

Ellen Sirleaf Johnson was the first woman president of Liberia coming out of a horrific and bloody civil war. . .which came about in part because Liberia was colonized by formerly enslaved people from the US, an effort supported by some Methodists who wanted to establish a "civilized" Black nation on the African continent, quite ignorant of the indigenous folks already living in the area.

Rosa Parks walked into the history books by sitting down on a Montgomery bus. . .and she was booked by Deputy Sheriff DH Lackey, who worshipped at an all-white Methodist church.

Joseph Lowery's leadership in the Civil Rights Movement earned him honorary degrees from a number of historically

Black colleges and universities. . .which came into existence precisely because of strong opposition, including from Methodists, to integrated higher education.

Maybe you were around when some of these stories were happening in real time. How did the televised news and local newspapers cover these events? What did you make of them? And what do they mean to you now?

These last 3 years have taught us the unfinished nature of racial reconciliation. We often think of "reconciliation" as a matter between people or groups of people to resolve a conflict, but I think about it in terms of bank statements. Online banking has changed some of these practices, but when the bank sends statements at the end of the month, we check our checkbook entries against the bank statement numbers, note any discrepancies, and we either call the bank or correct our own accounting. "Reconciliation," in this sense, is checking our own math against what the bank says. Reconciling ensures we have an accurate picture of debits and credits so we don't overspend.

Black history month, in this sense, is an opportunity for us to check the bank statement against what we think we have in our account, but this time in the sense of history. Does the story go entirely the way we thought it did? Is it possible we wrote a check and forgot to enter it, and now we need to take a look at what actually happened? Are there any errors in the record that need correcting? What is actually in our account?

This is good and holy work, uncomfortable as it is. On Sunday mornings, occasionally someone will offer me a note on something I said that was hurtful, whether intentional or not. I never love these moments, but each time is a chance to make things right, or even better, to make things good. Repentance and reconciliation always go together. Ministry worthy of the tradition of Harriet, John, Ellen, Rosa, and Joseph inevitably leads us back to the sanctuary to sing God's praise for how far we have come by faith, leaning on the Lord. It is only grace that will lead us home to each other.

Blessings, Rachel

Dismantling Racism Team (DRT)

We all know that February is Black History Month, but most of us probably don't know much about how it started or how it's evolved over the years. The origins of Black History Month go back to 1915, when Dr. Carter G. Woodson, a Harvard-trained historian, founded what is known today as the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH). In 1926, the organization sent out a press release announcing the second week of February as Negro History Week, and encouraging the study of the countless black people who had contributed to the advancement of human civilization. From the beginning, the response to this call was enthusiastically promoted by schools, clubs, and local governments, and by the 1960s, the shift to a month-long celebration had begun. President Ford officially recognized Black History Month in 1976. A more detailed history can be found at asalh.org/about-us/about-black-history-month/.

Each year the ASALH provides a theme for Black History Month to focus the attention of the public. The 2023 theme is "Black Resistance." The following is excerpted from the description of the theme on the ASALH website: African Americans have resisted historic and ongoing oppression, in all forms, especially the racial terrorism of lynching, racial pogroms, and police killings since our arrival upon these shores.... Black people have had to consistently push the United States to live up to its ideals of freedom, liberty, and justice for all.... This is a call to everyone, inside and outside the academy, to study the history of Black Americans' responses to establish safe spaces, where Black life can be sustained, fortified, and respected.

Here are a few people within our Methodist tradition whose acts of resistance are worth learning more about:

Richard Allen, born into slavery, became a Methodist preacher and later founded the African Methodist Episcopal Church in response to continued persecution from the white Methodist preachers.

Mary McLeod Bethune, a Methodist laywoman, started a school for Black girls in Florida, which became Bethune-Cookman College.

Joseph Lowery was a Methodist pastor who, along with the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., founded the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in 1957.

Leontine Kelly, in 1984, was the first Black woman elected bishop in the UMC or in any mainstream Christian church in the world.

Borrowing from the pastors' sermon theme from last month, your Church Library team is echoing the time reference this month. It is time to return books. There are return trays in the library and on the display table in Fellowship Hall.

Critical to the library's resources is the return of the children and adult books dealing with the understanding of racism. If you are still in need of their use, please speak to one of the team members or leave a note in the Church Office.

The library volunteers are ready to collect and store the Advent and Christmas books for another year; it would be helpful to have them returned asap.

It is a pleasure to announce that one more novel by the Pulitzer Prize-winning author, Marilynne Robinson, has been added to our collection. Housekeeping, joins the other works of Robinson, beginning with Gilead and the related books in that series. Housekeeping, is a "stand alone" and, yes, it is about the effort to keep house, but it refers to keeping anything, be that a psychological, emotional or physical thing maintained.

February is a month filled with days noted on our calendars. None more important than Wednesday the 22nd., Ash Wednesday. Lenten materials will be available for check out in both Fellowship Hall and on the Library desk. Study groups and family and youth groups, let the Library team know of any supplemental resources we may be able to locate for you.

ISAI AH has a vision of our state – a place where everyone’s dignity is honored, a caring economy that allows everyone to thrive, a climate future that nurtures all of creation.

This month is a busy time for our state legislators and thus for ISAI AH. Legislative committees are holding hearings; ISAI AH-NUMC team members are learning about ISAI AH’s top five proposals:

- Paid Family and Medical Leave
- 100% Clean Energy by 2040
- Child Care
- Democracy – restore the vote and automatic voter registration
- Budgeting for Equity

The secondary priorities include:

- Driver Licenses for All
- MN Care Buy-in
- Transit Funding
- Paid Sick Leave
- Education Funding
- Public Safety

The legislature is positioned this year to make positive gains on all of these, but they need to be bolstered in their work by hearing from us, their constituents. When we thank them for supporting a proposal, they are energized to stay committed. If they are waffling or opposing a proposal, our task is to explain to them how the changes would impact our lives positively. Your story may be the one that brings a change of heart.

Act now! Be in touch with your legislators about the proposals that matter the most to you. Their contact information is at this web address: <https://www.gis.lcc.mn.gov/iMaps/districts/>. Just enter your address and click. Your legislators’ names appear; click the “contact” bar and get all the details you need.

Want to learn more? Each Tuesday evening during the session, at 6 until 7, several legislators meet with ISAI AH supporters via Zoom – letting us know what is happening in the committees and full sessions. We find out how to be supportive. If you need a registration link, contact Evelyn Burry. Also contact her to be added to the ISAI AH-NUMC action alerts email list. ### Mission Sewing Project

In December Mission Sewing donated 30 quilts to Operation Joy.

We want to thank everyone who helped sew diapers and receiving blankets for Midwest Distribution Center. In December we brought 24 receiving blankets, 10 layette jackets and 61 diapers to Rochester where from there they will get picked up to go to the Midwest Mission Distribution Center in Illinois.

Our next meeting is February 22nd, Wednesday to tie quilts. We meet at 9:00 AM in Room 120.

Notes from the Parish Nurse

A heart at peace gives life to the body. Proverbs 14:30 (NIV)

In February our thoughts turn to our hearts: Valentine hearts filled with love, our spiritual journey as we begin the Lenten season, and our physical hearts as it is American Heart Month. We should be concerned about heart disease, as it continues to be a primary cause of death and disability in our country.

“The American Heart Association’s signature women’s initiative, ‘Go Red For Women’, is a comprehensive platform designed to increase women’s heart health awareness...It’s no longer just about wearing red; it’s no longer just about sharing heart health facts. It’s about all women making a commitment to stand together with ‘Go Red’ and taking charge of their own heart health as well as the health of those they can’t bear to live without.” This national movement was founded to help fight back against the #1 killer of American Women, as cardiovascular disease is the cause of one in every 3 female deaths in the United States. Join with thousands of women across America on national Wear Red Day, Friday, February 3, 2023, by wearing red and by making a donation to the American Heart Association to support research and education about women and heart disease.

The following risk factors of heart disease are ones you can do something about. They are: smoking, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, diabetes, being overweight or obese, and lack of exercise or physical inactivity. Related to these risk factors, the American Heart Association suggests “10 Ways to Love Your Heart.”

- Get regular checkups.
- Know your blood pressure and cholesterol numbers.
- Follow your doctor’s recommendations for diet and exercise.
- Take prescribed medications as directed.
- If you smoke, quit now.
- Get at least 30 minutes of moderate physical activity each day.
- Eat a heart-healthy diet, including fruits and vegetables, whole-grain food and fish.
- Limit food high in saturated fats and dietary cholesterol.
- Limit your salt intake to 1500 mg of sodium a day.
- If you drink alcoholic beverages, drink in moderation—an average of no more than one drink a day for non-pregnant women.

The American Heart Association shares other facts about women and cardiovascular disease.

- This disease kills more women than all forms of cancer combined.
- Nearly 45% of women over the age of 20 years are living with some cardiovascular disease.
- Less than 50% of women entering pregnancy have good heart health.
- The #1 killer of new moms is cardiovascular disease. (It accounts for over 1/3 of maternal deaths!)
- Heart disease is NOT caused by menopause but this midlife stage is often a time when cardiovascular risks increase.
- Most cardiac and stroke events can be prevented through lifestyle changes and education.
- 51.9% of hypertension (the “silent killer”) deaths are in women.
- 57.5% of stroke deaths are women though there are around 4.1 million women living today who have survived a stroke.

In 2004 the goal of “Go Red for Women” was to raise awareness of women’s greatest health threat, cardiovascular disease. Nowadays “Go Red for Women” continues to advocate for the health of all women and it is “committed to removing the unique barriers women face to experiencing better health and well-being.”

Methodists Investing in Care and Action for the Holy Land - Based on Micah 6:8

“What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.” - Micah 6:8

What is... ?

Allah – Arabic word for God. Arabic-speaking Christians use the same term for God.

An Arab Christian – An Arab who believes in Jesus the Messiah. Many Arab Christians consider themselves descendants of the early church.

An Arab - An Arab is a person whose native tongue is Arabic, generally one who comes from the Middle East or North Africa. Arabs are not a religious group but a linguistic and cultural group.

Palestine – The Romans first applied the name Palestine to the area between the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan River. Generally, Palestine refers to the 27,090 km political unit designated by the British Mandate that took possession of the region from the Ottoman Empire during the first World War. Since 1988 Palestine started to refer to the West Bank and Gaza. West Bank is the territory west of the Jordan River. Palestinian - A person born in Palestine or whose ancestors were born in Palestine.

Occupation/Occupied Territory – Occupation refers to the invasion, conquest, and control of territory by military force. In Palestine, occupation means that Israel, a foreign power, exercises complete control over every aspect of Palestinian lives.

Settlement/Settler – Settlements are Jewish-only housing units built in strategic areas of the Palestinian Territories occupied by Israel in 1967 in order to colonize the land, secure control over it, and prevent the emergence of a Palestinian State. Settlers carry out significant violence against Palestinians and their property, often with protection from and even with the assistance of the Israeli military. All settlement is illegal under international law, “The occupying power shall not deport or transfer parts of its own civilian population into the territory it occupies.” (Article 49, paragraph 6 of the Fourth Geneva Convention)

Anti-Semitism – Generally used to describe negative attitudes towards Jews. **Note:* In 2008 A letter was written to the General Secretary of the United Methodist Church by 114 Israelis. In the letter was the following paragraph, “We assure the Methodist Church that it is no more anti-Semitic to criticize and oppose Israeli Government policies than it is anti-American to oppose the Vietnam war [or current policies]. It is never anti-Semitic to oppose injustice, destruction, gross inequity, and inequality.”

Zionism - Contemporary political Zionism stems from a nationalistic Jewish movement in the 1800s in Europe seeking to establish a Jewish Homeland. In 1975 the UN passed resolution 3379 declaring Zionism a form of racism. Contemporary Zionists are those who have associated themselves with the goals of the modern state of Israel.

Anti-Zionism – Because Zionism is a political ideology/practice and Judaism/Jewishness is a religion/ethnicity, the term anti-Zionism is used to distinguish between opposition to a political movement and opposition to the people a political movement purports to represent.

Christian Zionism – Christian Zionism merges theology and politics. It teaches that the secular state of Israel is a fulfillment of Biblical prophecy. Christian Zionism believes that this fulfillment of Biblical prophecy began when European Jews started moving to Palestine in the 1800s and continued as Israel became a nation in 1948. ## New Vision ACTION Plan!

New Vision of ACTION has started its journey through a New Year. It is well known that United Women in Faith are “Women of Action! and We get things done!” Can that be said about the women of Northfield UMC? We have been asked for support of the children’s and youth’s ministries at NUMC. Our bakers and members have chosen to support that request. Won’t you join them?

How can you add your drop making a new ripple to the pond of needs? Does someone have the call to put together Welcome bags for NUMC church visitors? Can someone help in the City of Northfield with books for Northfield Promise, or volunteering in Northfield Shares. The Key has needs of grooming kits, meals, or a gift of time as a godparent. How about sending TORCH packages to a college student? We can partner with other Northfield churches in sponsoring a refugee family or individual. Do you know of other needs?

The Minnesota legislative session has started off running. A strong focus is on children and family needs. ISIAIH is there and has an action plan and time line that we can plug into to get things done politically. Contact Evelyn Burry evelynburry@hotmail.com for more information and getting on their weekly email list and notices.

PLAYTIME FOR TODDLERS!

Tuesdays and Thursdays

8:30 - 10:00 am

Through March 23rd

It's PLAYTIME!!!!

Winter can be tough on little ones - so bring them to the Northfield UMC gym to play and get the wiggles out on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8:30am-10am. Our gym is open for Northfield's youngest kiddos ages 5 and under with adult supervision, there is no admission fee. We provide space, a BOUNCEHOUSE!, large muscle toys - balls, wheeled elements, playhouses and other structures.

More info? Email us at youth@northfieldumc.org.

The Methodist Mile!

These boots were made for walking, and that's just what they'll do. . .right here on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 2-4pm!

Need a place to get your steps in while the weather outside is still frightful? Our Methodist Mile is a 7 lap route you can walk (please no running!) inside our church facility.

Just follow the signs with the feet! Now through March 23rd.

OH, THE WEATHER OUTSIDE IS...

Inclement Weather Policy

NUMC Inclement Weather Policy

Thanks to all the kids and volunteers who made the Christmas pageant happen so our youngest disciples could tell us the ancient story.

The Advent service for peace and healing offered a contemplative space for those who needed it this season.

Christmas cookie decorating led by our SALT youth. Dozens of cookies were delivered to our friends at the Laura Baker Services Association.

Two little elves getting ready to deliver the Christmas cookies.

The "kitchen elves" prepare our wonderful Super Wednesday meals.

If anyone knows what kind of elf this is, please let Sandy know, she looks confused.

Mary Williams takes advantage of the Methodist Mile indoor walking route. A great way to get your steps in while the weather outside is frightful!

SALT collected 135 pairs of gloves for Ukrainian refugees resettled in MN.
