Call to Confession

Time of Silent Confession

Imposition of Ashes

Tonight we have a chance to name what we seek in this holy place during this holy season. On the left is one suitcase for the journey – what does this season call you to leave behind you? On the right is a second suitcase for arrival – what does this season call you to receive? Place your notecards in either suitcase, and you can do either or both of what you are called to leave, and what you are called to receive.
