Greeting & Welcome

+Passing of the Peace

+Call to Worship

We gather remembering the ordinary saints who have gone before us.

Their lives and love continue to shape our own.

We gather surrounded by a God of abundant manna and extravagant mercy.

In a world of scarcity and fear, God calls us to share.

We gather with gratitude for the past and courage for the days ahead.

All: Together, we seek a world where all have enough.

+Offertory Liturgy

Generous God, all that we have is gift. You provide enough for us to live, to share, and to care for one another. Receive these offerings and the gifts of our lives. May they bring nourishment where there is hunger, companionship where there is loneliness, and hope where there is despair. Amen.

All Saints Prayer of Remembrance

God of all generations, we give thanks for those whose lives we remember today.

For their kindness and courage, for their laughter and wisdom, for the ways they loved us and challenged us, we give thanks. We acknowledge the grief that remains, the conversations unfinished, the empty places at our tables, and the love that endures.

May their memories be a blessing. May their examples inspire us.

All: And may we live with the same generosity and mercy that you offer to every generation, through Jesus Christ, who holds us together in life, in death, and in life beyond death. Amen.

Prayer After Communion

God of manna and mercy, you have welcomed us to your table and nourished us with the bread of life. Send us into the world with open hands, grateful hearts, and the courage to live differently. May there be enough for all. May mercy guide our steps. And may love be the legacy we leave behind. Amen.
